

St Keyne & Trewidland Parish Council

Councillors' Portfolios 2024-25

The Chair asks that councillors who have volunteered to take on additional responsibilities will:

- Make periodic reports back to the public meeting
- Act as a point of contact for residents
- Act as a point of contact for Cornwall Council or other agencies, where appropriate.

Portfolio	Current 2024/25	Responsible for
South East Cornwall Community Area Partnership	Kevin Shovelton & Alex Blackwell	Attend quarterly CAP meetings.
Maintenance	Mark Featherston	Carry out weekly safety inspections of the play equipment at Jubilee Park, and periodic safety inspections at the Lawn Cemetery.
Community Emergency Plan	Kevin Shovelton	Production and maintenance of the CEP. Periodic review. Implementation as appropriate.
Scrutiny Committee	Chair Vice Chair Sarah Whiting	Meets as required to receive and respond to complaints about service provision and staffing. Carries out annual appraisal of Parish Clerk.
St Keyne Village Hall	Alex Blackwell	Periodic attendance at village hall committee meetings to act as link between the two organisations. Promote parish council initiatives and support the hall committee where appropriate.
Trewidland Village Hall & Trewidland notice board.	Angela Woodman	Periodic attendance at village hall committee meetings to act as link between the two organisations. Promote parish council initiatives and support the hall committee where appropriate. Maintains up to date notices on parish noticeboard.
Paths & Stiles	Jonathan Ellis, Roger Cook & Kevin Shovelton	Acts as contact for landowners and Cornwall Council. Monitors existing network to maintain access.
Community Safety	ALL	To manage the council's relationship with police, Neighbourhood Watch and speed campaigns.
Safeguarding Designated Person	Clerk & Sarah Whiting	To act as a point of contact for councillors and residents with concerns about safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults.

		Additional training required, and acting as a champion for safeguarding throughout the parish. Deliver appropriate training.
St Keyne defibrillator & notice board	Mark Featherston	Daily checks on defibrillator, reports for replacement components. Maintains up to date notices on parish noticeboard.